CREDENTIAL ASSESSMENT IN CANADA

If your educational degrees are not from a Canadian province or territory you will require to have your credentials assessed.

Credential assessment will help you:

Assess if your credentials are equal to the standards set for Canadian workers.

Assess if you need more training, education or Canadian work experience.

Assess the types of jobs for which you might be qualified to do in Canada

Inform employers your qualifications.

Once your assessment is obtained you can include the information in your résumé or curriculum vitæ (CV).

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

There are cases in which you need to prove your ability in either English or French such as when you apply for a job or apply for immigration to Canada.

English language tests and certificates:

International English Language Testing System (IELTS).

Canadian English Language Proficiency Index Program (CELPIP).

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL: commonly required by universities and colleges).

French language tests and certificates:

Test d'évaluation de français (TEF).

Diplôme d'études en langue française (DELF).
